

MUCHEA SHEEP REPORT 27th FEBRUARY 2018

Landmark reports an increase in numbers by 3,873 head to see a total of 16,587 offered and sold with 10,124 lambs of mixed quality and 4,432 mutton also of mixed quality. The lamb market continued to be sort after and closed $2-$3 firm on recent quotes with a sale top of $165.50. Trade and light trade lambs met good trade support also to see this lift follow down the line. Store drafts saw graziers and restockers keen to buy. The mutton yarding lifted under strong trade inquiry and rose $3 to $5 on heavier drafts and this followed down the condition of drafts.

Wethers presented were lacking the sizable lines of recent weeks and closed equal to last sale under competition from two exporters and added to this, grazier enquiry to see a sale top of $152, ranging from $120 for better lines and $82 to $104.50 for lighter lines. Ewe hoggets were of better quality and under good spirited bidding realised $133 for trade drafts, starting from $105 and between $77.50 and $100 for restockers.
