Market Comment:

A very similar sized yarding this week at Muchea, in total agents yarded 15,213 head with Nutrien agents accounting for 6144 of the total. The majority of the yarding was made up of lambs with 10759 head and a mere 2827 ewe mutton offered.

There were some great pens of lambs up the front with our top price pen of 12 crossbred lambs selling at $236 per head on behalf of EJ Culloton. The remaining heavy weights selling slightly dearer at $190 to $228 per head.

Lambs in the trade weight category also kicked selling at rates of $165 to $180 while the light trade took a slight kick to sell at rates of $140 to $165 per head. The Airfreight / Feeder types remain strong selling at rates of $125 to $145 with genuine stores also remaining strong selling at rates of $65 to $125 competed on by agents and graziers.

There were some great drafts of mutton offered this week, Heavy ewe mutton sold at rates of $160 to $200 per head to be slightly stronger, Genuine trade types also strengthened slightly selling at $130 to $145 per head light trade and boners both also remain similar at $85 to $125 per head.

Nutrien's top pen of ewe mutton were 10 Crossbred ewes sold on behalf of Hamersley Fairfield for $201 per head.

There were very few large drafts of wether lambs available, Most heavy pens sold to processors at rates of $155 to $175 per head with the airfreight / feeder types selling similar to feeders and agents at rates of $120 to $135. Stores also remain unchanged selling at rates of $65 to $125 per head.

Please remember to nominate your sheep through your local Nutrien agent.

Next week we are Fourth sale
