

MUCHEA CATTLE REPORT 30th August 2021

Nutrien Livestock reports 1311 cattle sold at Muchea Monday 30th August through Nutrien with the yarding again dominated by pastoral steers, heifers, bulls and cows mainly of good quality. A good run of pastoral bullocks saw values fully firm and reach up to 436c/kg, whilst medium weight pastoral steers also remained firm with rates up to 444c/kg for cattle with 0-2 Teeth. Store heifers and steers of pastoral type were few and far between following our store sale. Pastoral bulls met with equal demand again. Local steers and heifers were few and far between with only a mixed pen of each being sold. Heavy weight cows were again equal this week with demand being exceptionally strong. Medium and light cows were also equal this week. Heavyweight bulls, both pastoral and local also met with strong demand to remain equal again this week.
