

MUCHEA CATTLE REPORT 16th January 2023

Nutrien Livestock sold 589 Cattle out of a total of 763 at Muchea Monday 16th January. A very mixed quality yarding was presented, and the day started with a small offering of heavy local bulls which saw those over a tonne making 200c/kg and under realising 220c/kg. The few trade cattle available saw good quality lots gain 40c/kg. Local yearling steers lifted 5-8c/kg with heifers gaining 30c/kg due to better quality pastoral steers met strong competition to sell to 448c/kg and the heifers picked up 5c/kg on last week. Both local and pastoral bulls met solid enquiry from exporters and feeders. Heavy Pastoral bulls sold to 308c/kg to be dearer whilst lightweights made a top of 460c/kg. A small but very good penning of both local and pastoral cows saw heavyweights 20-30c/kg to sell to 276c/kg with medium weights lifting 20c/kg and lightweights 5-8c/kg. Pastoral cows with young calves at foot sold for $1200 per unit.
