

Muchea Sheep Report 24/02/2026

Yarding 11,702 / sheep 4,140 / lambs 7,562

Today's sale had a significant jump in supply from last week with almost 12000 sheep and lambs yarded. Lambs again were offered in high volumes especially large drafts of stores and several good runs of trade and heavy weights through each of the Agents. The buyer gallery contained most regular processors and feedlot buyers as well as several restockers and interest from the eastern states still present. Store lambs held their values however as weight increased, values decreased with pricing easing up to $25 for heavy lambs. Mutton values remained firm while mature rams also eased $20/30/head. Also in the line up was a well presented draft of heavy Merino ewe hoggets with a full fleece purchased by a restocker reaching $252/head.

Store lambs sold from $80 up to $190 to remain firm while light lambs eased $6/8 making $170 to $218/head. Trade weights were cheaper by $15/20 to return $192 to $231 while heavy lambs sold from $220 to $271, easing $20/25/head.

Store Merino wethers hoggets sold from $150 to $181 while heavy weights made $185 to $244/head. light Merino ewe hoggets sold from $129 to $170 and heavy weights sold to a top of $252 with a fleece. Heavy Crossbred hoggets returned $200 to $245 and younger rams sold to a top of $240/head.

Boning ewes were making $80 to $183 while medium weights returned $160 to $230 and heavy ewes sold to a top of $240/head. Heavy wethers ranged from $191 to $250 while mature rams sold from $10 to $190/head, easing $25/30
